THE FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLAR CHECK .-The appouncement in the Gazatte that the tifty trousand dollar check given by the Baltimore, Cincionati and Western Railroad, the pure isser of the Washington and Onlo Railroad, was not honored when presented to the New York back, upon which it was drawn, yesterday, created no little surprise in this city. There Wis little else talked about lest nigut and today among business people, and the oriticisms ur on the company giving the check have not been at all favorable. The delay in giving the or cek, as required by the terms of sale, last Tuesday, brought out a good many nofavorable comments. Mr. Adams, of New York, a bidder for the road, declared publicly, and with some warmthichat he was there with the money to put up when he made his first bit, and all other bidders ought to have been similarly proparad. Mr. O iver Ames, of Boston, who was present with $50,000 cath in his pooket, doutted the genuieness of the sale, when he said to Mr. O.kman, of New York, who pid for him $591,000, "if this is a genuine sale at $592,000 lam happy." Other prominent bidders, who expressed their surprise at the purchaser not coming up promptly with the $50,000, said they thought they came to Alexandria to bid against responsible parties; that the commissigners of sale should have required the par ies to put up the $50 000 upon making their first bid. The check, which was drawn on the Market Bank of New York, and a good by E. K. Hayt. Tressurer of the Baltimers, Cincionati and Western Railroad Company, was presented to the back yesterdey morning, when it was found there was no money on deposit to the ekeek of the company to meet it. After wiiting until three o'clock in the afternoon the cheed was protested and placed in the hands of a potary public. The company, although diehonored, had the privilege of moeting its obliestion to-day, but up to two o'clock no intimation had been received by the First National Back in this city, which forwarded the obeck, from the Market Back, that the $50,000 had ground that a company which slows is first enck to be disheared will not be likely to mest the future psymeois. The Baltimers, Ciusiann i and Western Railroad Company proposes to build a line of railroad from Washing on to Cincinnal, and with that of j et in view has had, for several months past, engineers to Maryland, surveying a reure. Some of the occineers, smarg whom are some of these organizers, sharing whole several from this cry, have not received their pay for two mouths. The work of making a survey in Maryland has been stopped on an tobert Lee, Will Prop or, George Mooree, and publican State committee, were accorded the Robert Lee, Will Prop or, George Mooree, and privilege of entering the caucus at their pleasure. others, who are in the empley of the company. have returned to their homes to this city. ANNUAL REUNION .- The ladies of the sucper table at the Uadets' Far had the stage fal justice to the bountiful provision made for them. When they could cat no more, Judge Stustt, who, as president of the society, had the chair, in a felicisous sposch, gave the toast, "Od St. John's; miy her future do no discred or, 'The President of the Society of Old Studen; may the honors his fellow-pitizons have already bestowed upon him be but a prelude to still higher ones." Judge Stuart having made a brief reply. City Treasurer Harlow and Commonwealth's Attorney Brent were called up by complimentary toasis, and made sher , but eflee ive speeches. Mr. Wm. F. Corne replied o a hemorous manner to the toast of "The Press," and Mr. W. K. Davidsen made a very interesting and amusing speech in response to Marbury, Authory W. Armstrong, Wm. R. Sirtger, of Il inois, Robert L. Monroe, Arthur Gregory and others responded to the toasts of their respective classes. About ha'f-past ten the egtertainment broke up with three cheers era saited upon the tables. Almost the entire price troceeds were clear profit, and will be devoted

Row Among the Readjusters.-The adgeship of the Corporation Court has raised a row among the readjusters of this city. The party is divided, and intense bitterness now trevails where formerly dwalt political fellowship question will be taken up in the readjus ter coucus at Richmond Tuesday wight nex. and consequently unusual efforts are bling made by the friends of the different candidates It is nederstood that meetings will be held in this city to night for the purpose of end sing | nov26

Mr. F. R. Windsor for the judgeship, and dicouncing Auditor Massey for bolting the readjuster causus. It is further understood that at these meetings the anti-Windsorites will be present in full force. If this be true a lively time may be expected. Major Meads and Judge Sangster have both returned to this city frem Richmend.

THE CADET CORPS FAIR. - The fair for the benefit of the Cadet Corps of St. John's Acidemy, at Armery Hall, was attended last night by a larger crowd than on any night during the work. The hall was literally packed and a good deal of money passed from the hands of the visitors into the fair treasury. It is thought this will be one of the most successful fairs held in this city for years. The voting for the articles named stands :

WEDDING -A vary interesting wedding took place last right at Christ Church, Georg stown, the Rev. A. E. Stuart officiating. The contracting parties were Mr. Thes R. Jones, of Raleigh. N. C. agent of Robt Periner, eeq., of Alexandria, Va. and Miss Minnie E. Davis, one of Georgetown's favorite beller. The bride was given away by her brother, Dr. D. Davis, At the capellaton of the sarvice an informal recent the conclusion of the service an informal reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, in which the members of the family and the intimate friends of the young couple participated After a short bridal tour the young couple will go to their Southern home, whither the good wishes of their hest of friends follow them.

NO FLACE LIKE HOME-NO PAPER LIKE THE GAZETTE .- A former, Alexandrian, now a resident of Florids, in sending on his subscription to the Gazette says:

'Here I am in the land of flowers and of cranges on the banks of the beautiful St. John's, with everything calm and peaceful around to the thermometer up to about 80, and no cost to buy, and 'still I am not happy' without the Old Gazatta to tell me of the old town and the many old friends left behind ma, 'Ts very pleasant and beautiful here but it's not like home."

THE PHARMACY BILL .- A telegram received here to day from Richmond says that at a meet-ing of the State Senate Committee on General Laws held this morning it was agreed that Alexandria should be exempted from the provisions of the pharmacy bill. Major a mith made an abla and telling apach before the committee on behalf of the exemption of Alexandria.

Auditor Massey's Address to the Rendjusters.

Auditor John E. Massey has prepared sn extended address to the readjusters of Virginia, in which he plainly states his c:s). He sets forth consise'y the importance of having the appointment of his own clerks. He says that he opposed the die stion of the caucus, and appeald to it to permit him to at pear before them and give his reason for opposing the rule adopted. This was denied him, but Gen. Mahone and Col. James D. Bracy, chairman of the re-privilege of entering the caucus at their pleasure.

Nir. Massey denies that all the readjuster members made pledges binding themselves to these gentlemen any the company is a solid one | abide the results of caucustule.
